kitchen living room with reverse cycle air-conditioning. The kitchen is white, light and bright and has been recently renovated and opens out to the spacious undercover patio area and backyard. The fully enclosed back yard is perfect for children and your furry friends to enjoy. There is plenty of space to add a Tiny Home which with the rental income will help pay off your mortgage (stca). The bedrooms are spacious, two with floor to ceiling built-ins. The bathroom has had a make-over and is fresh white and bright. This property offers a massive undercover carport providing ample room for all of your toys- boats, cars, camping trailers. The double driveway also means there is room to park a caravan or extra parking if you're a family with many drivers.

If you are looking for a home ready to move in contact me about this picture-perfect property.
